ALBURY PICTURE ARCHIVE TRAYS & CD

SUE HARGREAVES & ROGER TAYLOR RECOLLECTIONS

Sue Hargreaves, born 1941 at 4 Weston Dene, Albury, daughter of George and Elvire King of the Bakery. These are my recollections from early 1948 to the shop closing in 1978. Some properties I know have been in the families for years and handed down the generations.

[Memories of 1930s Brook residents by Roger Taylor, born 1929 - many single women after WW1.]

One lodger Ann Bradshaw was a primary school teacher at Albury school. My grandfather William King born in 1879 was a pupil at the school in the village hall and would walk from Stock House, Farley Green. Many years later my husband was working in the village hall cellar and found his name on a coat peg.
Jul76	283a	2-077-Old Pharmacy, Farrier's Cottage, Old Post Office	Farriers: Henk Huffener. The Chemist shop: Mr and Mrs Francis lived here and the shop was always very neat and tidy. Often you would go in and would have to wait for Mr Francis to come up from his living room downstairs. Before it was a chemist it was owned and run as a drapers shop by the Foard family. Also Percy Lloyd ran a photography business from here.
Jul76	283b	2-078-Not the Old Pharmacy	The Post Office: George, Annie Fuller and Helen (known as Nellie).They sold the usual stamps and envelopes, sealing wax and string, as well as sweets in paper cones and also had a lending library that always looked quite old and dusty.

Mr Sherlock Snr was a farrier and the house was eventually tenanted by his daughter Eleanor. Her house also doubled up as a doctor's surgery and Dr James Patterson and later Drs John and Margaret Louden took over as local GPs. You would all line up in her hallway and then the consultation would be in her back sitting room.

Aug76	288c	2-088-Whitecroft	Later: Albury Peace. 'A History of Whitecroft, Albury, Surrey' by Philip Gorton, 2001. The Butchers Shop: Mr Jack Miles and his nephew George Ethington ran the butcher shop. Behind the shop was the slaughter house and as I lived next door at the Bakers it was usual for a Monday afternoon for the lorry to arrive and deposit cows, sheep and pigs and take them to the slaughterhouse on their final journey. The noise was dreadful and I got quite upset listening to it. Mr Miles died and George took over for several years but unfortunately he got knocked over in the street while unloading a vehicle. Very unfortunate as the lorry would have normally reversed up the drive, but with very icy roads that day they decided to unload on the street. The local doctor needed to pull in behind the lorry as traffic was coming and he was unable to stop and crushed George with his car. George eventually had his leg amputated and as he wasn't able to work again the shop closed.

Aug76	289a	2-089-King's Bakery	Harry King and his wife Eliza ran the bakery for quite a while. He was born in Albury and when he retired it was taken over in 1925 by William King (my grandfather and no relation to Harry King). William was born in Ewhurst and moved to Stock House, Shophouse Lane in Farley Green. He married a local girl Fanny Jolly from Cherrymans Farm in 1904 and moved to Croydon and had their own bakery business there before moving to Albury in 1925.

I remember him sitting on the wall and spitting quite a lot. Garage Cottage: Mr and Mrs Smith, then Peter Parfree and his wife Peggy moved in when they married and when Arthur Parfree moved to Farley Green, Peter and Peggy moved into the Garage and had 2 children James and Janet. Much later this cottage became a Post Office run by Mr and Mrs Edward Merritt son of Mrs Merritt in Weston Yard and Mrs Dorothy Merritt (the daughter of Mr and Mrs William King at the bakery).
Aug76	290b	2-092-Drummond Arms east end	1964-1970: Mr Ranson. Mr and Mrs Sid Fry and daughters June and Janet are the earliest that I remember. Daughter June married and took over years later with her husband Ken Peacock and ran the hotel for several years. They had a son, Andrew. Then John Bonner & family. Next came The Luggs who upset the village people when they had the beautiful red Virginia Creeper taken off the walls. Then Tom King and his wife took over, and after he gave up running the hotel he moved to Postford cottages. Post Office Directory 1855: Henry Potter, Kelly's 1918 & 1937: Surrey Public House Trust Co Ltd

Aug76	292c	2-100-Bidwell House & Swiss Cottage	Bidwell House: Next door to the shop lived Mr and Mrs Charlie Ward and sons John and Michael. Later on they moved to the Lodge Gates at Park Railing on Albury Heath. Swiss Cottage: (now March Cottage) The Cooper family lived here and worked as tailors and dressmakers. Several generations have lived and worked here as tailors. The back room to the right of the building was the work room and the front room was the showroom with all the bales of cloth from the floor to the ceiling shelves. The Pettit family came next with sons Paul and James. Basil and his sister Phyllis delivered milk around the area and this came after their parents Mr and Mrs Pettit gave up Birmingham Farm, from where the milk was originally delivered. Swiss Cottage also doubled up as a doctor’s surgery and Dr James Patterson and later Drs John and Margaret Louden took over as local GPs. Front area as a waiting room and the back room as a surgery.
